Penn State School of International Affairs Partnership Agreement

PennState
School of International Affairs

As a Financial Partner, the Penn State School of International Affairs will provide Clarke DS Fellows enrolling in its eligible master's degree program with scholarships to cover the cost of tuition above the Clarke DS Fellowship tuition assistance, and with funding for living expenses above the Clarke DS Fellowship academic funding.

Matthew J. Detrick
Assistant Director of Admissions, School of International Affairs
The Pennsylvania State University
Email: myd5204@psu.edu
Phone: (814)-863-4962

Scholarship for Clarke DS Fellows

The Penn State School of International Affairs (Penn State SIA) will waive the application fee for Clarke DS Fellows applying for admission to its eligible master's degree program. Fellows who enroll full-time in the Master of International Affairs program at Penn State SIA will also receive:

- Scholarships to cover the difference between the cost of tuition at Penn State SIA and the Clarke DS Fellowship tuition assistance.

- Funding for living expenses during the four semesters of graduate study to cover amounts above the Clarke DS Fellowship academic funding of $18,000 annually.

Clarke DS Fellows should indicate on their application for admission that they are applying as a Clarke DS Fellow.

The scholarships are awarded for the first year of study and are renewable in the second year provided the student remains a Clarke DS Fellow in good academic standing in their approved degree program and maintains a minimum 3.2 GPA.

Eligible Programs

Clarke DS Fellows are eligible to enroll in the following four-semester (fall and spring), full-time master's degree program offered by Penn State SIA:

- Master of International Affairs

Application for Admission

To apply to Penn State SIA, Clarke DS Fellows must:

- Email admissions@sia.psu with proof of your acceptance into the fellowship to receive a fee waiver code for their application.

- Complete The Graduate School's online application: https://www.sia.psu.edu/admissions/apply-to-sia

ClarkeDSFellowship.org