

Heinz College of Information Systems and Public Policy Partnership Agreement

As a Partner University, Carnegie Mellon's Heinz College will provide scholarships to Clarke DS Fellows enrolling in its eligible master's programs. The scholarship amount covers the difference between the Clarke DS Fellowship tuition assistance and the cost of tuition at Heinz College.

Scholarship for Clarke DS Fellows

Heinz College at Carnegie Mellon University will provide Clarke DS Fellows enrolling in its eligible master's programs a merit-based scholarship for an amount equal to the difference between the Heinz College tuition and the Clarke DS Fellowship tuition assistance.

The scholarship is awarded for the first year of study and is renewable in the second year provided the student remains a Clarke DS Fellow in good academic standing, maintaining above a 3.2 GPA in their first year.

Eligible Programs

Clarke DS Fellows are eligible to enroll in the following four-semester master's programs offered by Heinz College:

- Master of Science in Information Security Policy and Management (MSISPM)
- Master of Science in Public Policy and Management (MSPPM)
- Master of Science in Public Policy and Management - Data Analytics Pathway (MSPPM-DA)
- Master of Science in Public Policy and Management – Washington, DC Pathway (MSPPM-DC)

Application for Admission

Heinz College will waive its application fee and extend the January published admission application deadline to March 31, for all students who apply to the Clarke DS Fellowship program. Applicants to Heinz College should indicate on their application and resumé that they are applying for the Clarke DS Fellowship.

Clarke DS Fellowship finalists who are not selected for the Fellowship will be given equal consideration for merit-based awards from the school after the published admissions deadline date in January. All Clarke DS Fellowship finalists will be considered for other merit-based awards offered by Heinz College. No separate application is required.

Opportunities for Additional Income at Heinz

In addition to the annual stipend support from the Clarke DS Fellowship, Fellows can earn $5,000+ per year via RA, TA and/or off-campus internships throughout the academic year.
